COUNCILWOMAN JANIS FULLILOVE WILL HOLD A GUN TURN IN EVENT – TURN IT IN, SAVE A FRIEND

Disheartened by the number of homicides in the city this initiative appeals to the consciousness of our citizens to do the right thing and turn in illegal guns that may be in their possession or the possession of others. Councilwoman Janis Fullilove says, “Turn it In, Save a Friend.” As a way of saying thank you, participants will have a choice between various gift cards or a family pass to the Memphis Zoo.

This event keeps in line with Mayor Jim Strickland and Police Director Mike Rallings’ crime initiatives:

- to provide safer neighborhoods throughout the City Of Memphis
- to support Mayor Strickland and Interim Director Mike Rallings’ crime initiative
- to instill a sense of confidence and safety among the city’s law abiding residents

The event will take place Saturday, August 13 from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. in the Pipkin Building at the old fairgrounds.

For more information, please call 636-6786.
